

Island Muhu
Green Baltics

Elka Vlahovska

Only two hours drive from Tallinn, capital of Estonia, is Muhu island, with an area 198 square kilometers. Among the tiny village overlooks romantic Padaste Manor Hotel chain Small Luxury Hotels. The building is 444 years ago, built as the residence of the German-Baltic aristocrats.

Restored with love and attention to detail, today it provides luxurious accommodation in 24 exclusive rooms with magnificent views of the Baltic Sea and the incredible northern sunsets. Lawns in the park are ideal for picnics, an intimate spa offers local treatments for relaxation and beautification.

The hotel is complemented by a fantastic gourmet restaurant "Alexander" - one of the best addresses of fine cuisine in the world.

How to get there:

With a flight to Tallinn, then a two hour drive by car to the port Virstu and a half hour ferry to the island.

For guests a limousine transfer from the airport can be provided.

www.padaste.ee , www.slh.com